21 hampers were delivered to those in need in the Rutland area this January. We are grateful to all those in the parish whose support makes this possible. As members we know that poverty is uncomfortable. Poverty is not the lack of resources. It's just lack. The lack of hope. Future. Belief. Dignity. And regardless of why it's there or who's to blame, it makes people feel invisible. Especially when no one wants to look them in the eye. We know that "You will never see a set of eyes that God is not in pursuit of." Please consider joining us in our work. February meetings are Tuesday the 12th and Tuesday the 26th at 5pm, meeting room.

Pilgrimage of Faith Appeal 2018 - 2019

Rachel's Corner

"Sharing the truth ...the painful truth...of what we did regarding the sin of abortion...I needed that. I have finally recognized that God loves me infinitely and hearing the testimonials of the others present, impacted me so very much. -Testimonial

Join us on a Rachel's Vineyard Retreat and be free of the burden of the abortion decision that devastated your life and remained with you in silent and unacknowledged pain. Give yourself the opportunity to be understood so that you can be free once and for all.
